MINUTES

Item	What was discussed	Action
1.	Welcome, introductions and apologies
	CM welcomed everyone to the meeting and the virtual attendees were informed that the meeting will be recorded for internal use and asked that members online use the 'raise hand' function if they wished to speak.
	Expectations regarding meeting etiquette were outlined.
	There were "round table" introductions and CM read out apologies received, as detailed above.
	RO read out the actions from the previous meeting.

2) Norming of the contractor privately to commit their interest Mental Health Partnership Board. JT from Healthwatch Cornwall introduced the Co-Chair role to the board through a PowerPoint presentation. JT highlighted the various aspects of being a Co-Chair, such as: • Main Co-chair Activities • Personal Qualities and Skills of a Co-chair • What will you benefit from being a Co-Chair would be elected, proposing a nomination process as a potential direction, suggesting Nominees partake in a 'Q&A'. Many of the board members agreed that doing a personal summary or Q&A could be quite daunting for someone who may be anxious to do public speaking. CM agreed although stated that a Co-chair would have to be comfortable to speak in front of a group. AT from the Recovery College, Pentreath explained that they often do courses that explore gradually giving people confidence to speak publicly and thus it would be possible to be as accommodating as possible to someone who may be anxious. A new nomination process was proposed to accommodate concerns regarding public speaking: 1) Private nominations either on paper or electronically 2) Nominees are contacted privately to confirm their interest on momination and the althwatch Cornwall, the Cornwall Council Elected Co-chair, a lived experience board member and a service provider board member 4) The results are shared via Email and the board is informed

CM informed the board that another way one would become more comfortable in the role would be through Chairing the smaller working groups that are expected to take shape between future meetings. The working groups are typically smaller in attendance and are less formal than a Partnership Board meeting.

The board agreed with the new proposition for the nomination process, with PH and ALW offering to be the lived experience and service provider representative respectively.

CM proposed an agenda change, with TG presenting after the break rather than before it. This means the board can enter the workshop also led by TG immediately without interruption.

10-minute break

4 Cornwall Council – Cornwall and Isles of Scilly Prevention Framework: A preventative Approach to Mental Health

TG from Cornwall Council gave a presentation regarding the Cornwall Council Prevention Framework regarding mental health.

TG outlined the importance of prevention, particularly in relation to mental health and accessing mental health services. 'Prevention' pertains to ensuring people remain healthy and happy, eradicating the need for as many individuals to access mental health services and thus relieving overall pressure experienced by those services.

The prevention framework focusses on three steps:

- Preventing issues Such as keeping people happy and healthy (being active, positive diet)
- Reducing treatment by early detection and intervention
- Delaying the need for care by promoting independence and decreasing impact of ongoing long-issues

TG asked the board if they had any questions or thoughts.

PH mentioned that Carers try to live an independent and happy life, however carers often 'live through the person they are caring for' and that this can cause depression. There are not enough respite services in Cornwall to prevent carers from reaching a 'breakdown stage'. AOG agreed with PH.

CM themed these concerns by stipulating that it is important for money and funding to be allocated to carers and respite services to promote prevention of reaching 'break down' or depression.

PH added that Carers Allowance is revoked once a carer reaches pension age and receives state pension.

BL from Rice & Peas Community remarked that 'a little money can go a long way'. BL stated that support for rural communities is often overlooked particularly that of rural black communities. BL stated that the promise of even a small amount of funding would give people the confidence that small rural support projects can continue.

On the topic of funding allocation, WP from Community Energy Plus stated that she works with people in mental health crisis who are unable to heat their homes and having a cold, damp house often negatively impacts the mental health of individuals. TG agreed that this is a concern, and where money is being allocated should be reviewed.

The presentation showed to the board will be distributed in conjunction with these minutes.

5 Group Workshop - Prevention

TG introduced a workshop where individuals see how their organisation or lived experience can align with the Prevention Framework (outlined in Item 4). The room disbanded into two groups and RO facilitated a discussion with those online.

IN-ROOM DISCUSSION

- Pentreath Recovery College explores reducing by providing courses that promote resilience.
- The room also discussed generally regarding what support is offered and how is that support provided to people.
 Additionally, to promote delaying the need for care, the group expressed the importance of ensuring those in crisis can retain vital information, which can often not be the case

	ONLINE DISCUSSION
	Georgia's Voice – focusses on prevent, however their work covers prevent, reduce and delay. They also build connections within schools to promote prevention as well as support groups which focus on reduction and delay of complex cases
	Pentreath – Age UK Community Gateway can promote prevention.
	Voluntary Community Social Enterprise Sector (VCSE) Many groups will span all three aspects of the prevention framework, of which VCSE will aim to support all aspects of the framework.
6	Working Group - Discussion
	Due to time constraints, this item was postponed to the next meeting in Bodmin Shire House on 17 th July 2025.	HWC to share Working Group
	The PowerPoint presentation related to the Working Group will be distributed in conjunction with these minutes.	Powerpoint
