

Consultation – Adult Social Care Charging Policy

 Council 	The Charging Policy sets out how the Council will apply a charge for care and support services. Most people have to pay something towards the cost of the care they receive. The Council are looking at possibly changing 3 areas of the current Charging Policy. Information on these is on the next 2 pages.

	Change 1: Apply charges for non-residential services from the date the service starts. This means that you will need to pay towards the care you receive from the date that your care starts. This is for care at home and day centre visits.
	Change 2: Charge for Respite care under residential charging rules. This will mean that the amount you have to pay for a respite stay will be worked out differently. How we will work out what you have to pay: Income (not including Disability Living Allowance, Attendance Allowance or Personal Independence Payment). Less some things that you have to pay for at home. Less personal allowance of £24.90 per week. Total The amount you need to pay. We will also look at what savings you have.
	Change 3: To charge for the full cost of meals. This means that if you have a meal at home or in a day centre you will have to pay for the full cost of the meal you get.
